Customer Reviews

These are actually really really cool, they come in a very hard start a box. I really like going through um they're kind of divided into subcategories. It makes it easy to kind of look up what you're trying to review which is really really cool. I was really surprised at how cool the box is. They are presented in a easy to read format. Refer to my pictures for a better idea!

These cards are ok. There were a lot of terms that I was unsure about because they weren't covered in my class. There are a lot of cards, so it's definitely some work going through them and sorting them. I wish there was more than one ring for the cards 2-3 is needed depending on how many cards you're using at once. I purchase these to get extra practice for the national broker

it could be improved by writing one or two words on one side and the definition on the other side. For example one side would say "executed contract" the other side would say: "An executed contract is signed by all principles."

The information contained on the cards is not the type of information I needed as a beginning agent. They were gear more toward broker.

Wow! I was pleasantly surprised. These flash cards are practical, and a perfect size for traveling. The flash cards come with a sorting ring. The questions are useful; questions on the front and answers on the back. I am so glad that I purchased these.

Not as expected. Too wordy and not a helpful study tool. Overly simplistic. Flash cards should give a brief definition and not answers that are paragraphs long. Will be returning.

The information its self is very good. I was expecting the cards to be more of a flash card style where you can read one side and see the definition on the other but this feels more like a word followed by a paragraph of information. These would be good if you have just started learning Real Estate and want more information on the subject. I do like that they add a binder ring so you can take sections out at a time and keep them in your bag or purse without having to bring the entire box! Just be careful, the cards are on the flimsy side and should be kept in a ziploc bag to prevent bending.

Good examples provided. Would like more cards regarding real estate terminology.
