Winter Cabin Cooking: Dumplings, Fondue, Gluhwein And Other Fireside Feasts

Synopsis

Winter is the perfect time to take a break from the pace of modern life, slow down and savor a nourishing home-cooked meal. It doesn't have to take hours—many recipes take a little preparation and can then be left to simmer, bake or roast to perfection. For this book, Lizzie Kamenetzky has taken inspiration from snow-covered mountains and Alpine chalets, with all her favorite food from ski towns and winter holidays. Start the day with a sustaining breakfast such as homemade Brioche or Pain aux Raisins before heading out into the cold. For lunch, only a hearty soup or stew will do—try French Onion Soup or Rocky Mountain Stew. Mid-afternoon, when fingers are numb, retreat to the warmth of indoors and enjoy a tea-time treat such as Madeleines or Banana Cake with a steaming cup of coffee. For evening entertaining, there are lots of comforting meaty recipes to try, such as Cassoulet, Confit Duck or Spaghetti Bolognese, as well as some lighter options, such as Chicken Liver Parfait or Parmesan Cheesecake. There is also a whole chapter devoted to those delightful cheese dishes that are so perfect in winter, from Fondue to Swiss Chard Gratin. For those with a sweet tooth, finish the meal with a Creme Brulee or Tarte Tatin. This is food for warming the soul, for snuggling up against the cold, for firesides and crackling logs, and for blankets in cosy winter cabins.

Customer Reviews

This is my current "favorite cook book of all time". It is not only full of wonderful food, it is truly a work of art. The photography and layout alone are amazing. The first few recipes we have tried exceeded our expectations. Last night we tried the Goulash Soup and invited family members to join us. It was wonderful. Looking at the photography and the layout of the book, I can only imagine how much thought and hard work went into creating this book. My family and I are looking forward to creating every recipe in the book. We live in the Santa Cruz mountains and it seems to fit so well. A simply amazing work. Lizzie Kamenetzky and the design and editing team are all to be congratulated. By the way, I am a Williams-Sonoma, Inc. employee.
