Derek made this plain and simple. It is not God's desire to see those who love Him poor. God conscious people are always rich in spirit and THROUGH that spirit the physical manifestations come. I purchased multiple copies to put them into the hands of others that they may find some of the same value I found...this work is appreciated....

Many people misquote the Apostle Paul in saying, "money is the root of all evil." Others grasp for it and pursue fame and fortune as if their very lives depended on it. The Bible has more to say about money than practically any other topic. Derek Prince systematically reviews biblical principles, explaining how money can be part of our worship to God, how our use of it expresses the condition of our hearts, principles of sowing and reaping and putting God first. Not a large or difficult read, it is convicting. In his usual spirit of grace and humility, Derek Prince won't beat you over the head or lay a guilt trip on you. He lets the Word of God and His Holy Spirit gently convict you, so that you can make the changes necessary to be a true steward of God--amply provided for, but freely giving of the resources God gives you to manage for Him. Every follower of Christ should read this!

Derek Prince books are solid in their Biblical foundation, and this one is too. It's very basic, but a great foundational book on how finances should be handled by those seeking to have a balanced understanding and practical ways to handle their finances relating to their Christian beliefs.

Sound scripture-based advice regarding our monetary stewardship...the principles discussed and followed are so important, especially in this day and age of financial uncertainty... you will be enlightened and encouraged through this study.

In today's culture everything goes up in price. This book show what God expect of us in our new ecomonmy.we shill think putting $1 into the collectionm plate, will run the church. Derek Prince, shows what God thinksaboutit our giving.

I loved the book. It just reinforced principles that I have been taught and brought principles had missed or had not honestly adhered to. Great book for couples!!!
