Merry Christmas Cookbook (Seasonal Cookbook Collection)

Synopsis

A warm fire crackles in the hearth, the scent of fresh-cut greenery fills the air and woolen stockings hang on the mantel. Swirling snowflakes tell us winter's arrived and with it comes the most magical of holidays...Christmas! In Merry Christmas we've made holiday planning easy for you. Filled with delicious recipes, pretty packaging ideas, simple decorating tips and homemade holiday treats, we've shared our best ideas for making everything festive...fast! Wake everyone up Christmas morning to the aroma of Blueberry French Toast or Sugared Orange Rolls. For the big family dinner, try Cranberry-Glazed Ham, Miss Polly's Perfect Potatoes, Great-Grandma's Stuffing, Buttery Carrots & Onions and Snowflake Bread. And for sweets that will disappear fast, make Sugar-Dusted Pecan Squares or Peppermint Pinwheels. For gifts in a jiffy try Gingerbread Pancake Mix, Snowball Candles or Cinnamon-Applesauce Ornaments, and making a Snowman Kit is a fun activity for family night. It's time to celebrate the jolliest of holidays...join us for all the fun! Hardcover, 224 pages. (9-1/4" x 6-1/2")

Customer Reviews

This book is loaded with recipes and good ideas for sharing them. The Pumpkin Cream Muffins have a cream cheese center that makes them special. The White Chili, if you've never tried it, is delicious! The Christmas Tree Cinnamon Rolls are so easy, yet impressive looking. And I am tempted to try the Hot Chocolate Muffins, made with hot chocolate, for a breakfast treat. Add to that the quick ideas that you can do or make in minutes, like Powdered sugar apple party favors. They take minutes, but make a lasting impression. "Merry Christmas" makes it look like you've tried hard and been real thoughtful, but it makes it quick and easy to do so. I would recommend this book.

I was on a waiting list for over a month for this book then it was "lost" by my mail carrier so I had been waiting a while and the anticipation was not met by what was inside. There is a section on homemade gifts but really nothing new. There is also a big chapter on people's shared Christmas memories, while sweet it was not what I wanted to pay for. There haven't been any recipes in here that I have tried yet so I guess that it's not that memorable of a book. Get Jolly Holidays instead, that is an awesome book.

My daughter recently purchased a Gooseberry patch cook book and was so thrilled with it that I purchase this book and one other for her for her late Nov. birthday. She thinks they are the greatest with hints for making Christmas really memorable and the recipes are so good and most are easy to make and different than most you find in other cook books. We will definitely be ordering more of these books in the future.

Gifts and decoration ideas plus Christmas memories joined with appetizers, breakfasts, hearty main dishes, desserts & sweet treats. Line drawings in green & red for the season.

Gooseberry books are always great
