Customer Reviews

This small-format cookbook is chockfull of recipes to help the host/hostess who wants to provide delectable snacks that appeal to the palates of several guests but must entertain within an average budget. I gave several copies of it to friends and family for Christmas and everyone was delighted. In fact, those who didn't realize that they were also receiving a copy were asking to borrow the book when the first one was opened and passed around. Well done, Taste of Home!

Book just arrived and I have looked at each recipe. I can't wait to try many of them. The book is small and in a looseleaf format with colorful pictures on at least every other page. I'm delighted with my purchase because the recipes are simple to make...yet visually appealing.

Taste of Home is one of my favorite go-to's for recipes. I bought this book for a gift, but liked it so much that I purchased it for myself as well! There are tons of great recipes for entertaining. I highly recommend it!

Nice ideas for small get togethers.
