Celebrating With The Kosher Butcher's Wife

Synopsis

Sharon Lurie's first book, Cooking with the Kosher Butcher's Wife, became the trusted name in kosher cooking as every product used was certified kosher. Continuing in the same light, Celebrating with the Kosher Butcher's Wife can best be described as "cooking with the kosher butcher's wife all year round". The Jewish calendar year has many significant festivals each with their own unique specialty dishes. Written in a fun, humorous style with personal stories, each chapter in Celebrating with the Kosher Butcher's Wife highlights a different Jewish festival with a brief explanation. Featured festivals include Pesach (Passover), Shavuot, Sukkot, Rosh Hashanah, Purim, Chanukkah and Shabbat. Sharon gives a contemporary feel to traditional dishes with fun anecdotes, delicious recipes and stunning full-color photographs. Each chapter opener gives you stunning and innovative ideas for decorating and laying your own table, and is followed by a short introduction to the specific festival, before launching into an assortment of mouth-watering recipes for starters, main courses and desserts.
