Customer Reviews

Gourmet is the best cooking magazine and the "Best of" books are even better. Forget the magazine, just get these books. No tiresome ads for Rolex and rich people on pristine tropical beaches. Just the food and great recipes. The thyme scented apple galette (either in this issue or another one) was an instant winner in my house. The Greek recipes are great. I particularly remember the recipe for gigantic lima beans. Most recipes are thoughtfully staged. They tell what can be done ahead of time. They also give suggestions on complimentary dishes. All this and in durable hardback.

Not bad condition - but not what I expected from the description of 'unused - like new'. Dust cover had tears. Not as described!! did not know 'Daily Deals' was a reseller and that the books would all be coming from individuals all over the country. Difficult to have quality control with this kind of sales model.

My first of " The Best of Gourmet" I purchased from the Department store just because it was on sale. In that same evening I was cooking by that book. Now I am hunting for all editions. Beautiful photos and absolutely the best gourmet food recipes, easy to follow and you will get what it promised. I know, you will love it. Also, what a great section " Featuring the flavours of(every edition will have different countries).
