I love this book! It came yesterday and I've already done a breakfast recipe. Everything is fresh, simple and easy to find ingredients. Great healthy and delicious recipes.

This book is beautifully made. I love the photographs! The recipes are fresh, simple and healthy without being "diet-y".

So far so good with the his one. I love Katie Lee. I have The Comfort Table and that one is fab too. This book is a good balance of healthy and straight up indulgences. I made the Caesar dressing the other night for a grilled shrimp salad and it was better than the bottle. As it should be. Written well too.

I didn't know who Katie Lee was until I started watching The Kitchen. I bought her book because I like her bubbly personality, and I wanted to check out her summer menus. I was so impressed with the overall simplicity of the recipes!! The first day I read it I made her Pimiento Cheese Spread and frankly, I may never make another pimiento cheese recipe ever again. It was amazingly delicious!! I have already earmarked several other recipes to try in the next few weeks. Simple recipes with easily accessible ingredients. I am even more of a fan now!

I love how simple the ingredients are and clear direction - the turkey burgers are one of my boyfriends favorites, he ate 3 back to back

Wonderful cookbook! The pictures are gorgeous and the recipes are very easy to prepare. I have tried 3 so far and my family loves them. There is something for every taste. This is one of my favorite cookbooks. Beautifully done.

I brought this along on summer vacation when we rented a house with friends. It turned into our go to cookbook for the week. Nothing is too complicated and it was all tasty. The kiwi blueberry pavlova was a favorite dessert. There are also a lot cocktail recipes.
